

What's coming up and how you can get involved.

Exhibitions

There are three great exhibitions over the next academic year for you and your students to engage with. Find more details on our website, www.dlwp.com/education/schools

Triple Echo

29 September 2007 – 6 January 2008

Three new audio-visual collaborations between visual artists, composers, musicians and performers.

Curriculum links: art, music, english, media

Kenneth Martin & Mary Martin

26 January – 20 April 2008

Two of the foremost British abstract artists of the 20th century, known particularly for the use of mathematical systems in their work.

Curriculum links: art, design, maths, architecture

Grayson Perry & Kate Adams

10 May – 6 July 2008

Turner Prize winner Grayson Perry will present a personal selection of photography, sculpture and painting from the Arts Council Collection as well as a body of his new work, depicting 'Englishness'.

Kate Adams presents mixed media work exploring our sense of perception.

Curriculum links: art, design, media, citizenship

Tours and Workshops

Engaging tours and practical workshops are available all year round, focusing on both the exhibitions and on the Pavilion itself and its architecture. See the attached sheet for our core offer for schools and colleges, including costs.

New for 2007...

Discover the De La Warr

A half day session aimed to give students an understanding of the various roles (and possible careers) that are involved in running this iconic centre for contemporary arts. Explore the building through a practical creative session run by artists and staff.

Live Performance

This autumn sees an exciting range of music and film, including our new circus cabaret for Christmas, Acrobats and Angels. See our website for details. All performances offer special group rates.

CPD

Creative Teachers Network

Previously the Primary Teachers Network, now open to all teachers and other staff interested in developing their creative skills and knowledge, and networking with like minded colleagues.

The first session for this year will be a half-day practical workshop, working with designer/maker Mandeep Dhiman, on Friday 16 November, 1-4pm. This is linked to the Theatre of Making, an exciting event being held at the Pavilion on 18 November promoting engagement with quality craft and design, see our website for details. Thanks to funding from the Paul Hamlyn Foundation we are able to offer this session free of charge.

Venue TBC but will be in Bexhill

To book a place, contact Natalie Trimby

Tel: 01424 229103 or email: natalie.trimby@dlwp.com

Check our website regularly for details and updates on all our programme and activities www.dlwp.com

The Pavilion is a fantastic resource for the region and we are committed to making our building and programme as accessible as possible for schools and colleges.

We hope to see you soon.

Polly Gifford

Head of Education

Direct Line: 01424 229133

Email: polly.gifford@dlwp.com

The Young Curators
Image: Lambie Brothers