

CURATORIAL FELLOWSHIPApril – October 2024*Who is it for?

- A curator in the first 5 years of their career, based in a commutable distance to Bexhill-on-Sea, East Sussex.
- Someone who demonstrates a desire to improve their knowledge and experience in delivering exhibitions, public programmes, and artist development programmes.

What's on offer?

- £3000 Curatorial Fee (based on one-day per week over a 6-month period).
- The opportunity to work on exhibitions and public programmes across DLWP and FLP, gaining hands-on experience and developing research.
- Budget to produce a public programme event attached to the DLWP x FLP programme for 2024/25.
- Mentoring with Flatland Projects Director, Ben Urban and DLWP Head of Exhibitions, Joseph Constable.

How to apply:

Please send the following:

- A one-page statement (max. 500 words) that tell us:
 - Why you are interested in this opportunity.
 - What kinds of exhibitions, curatorial projects and/or engagement with artistic practice you have been involved in.
- CV (one PDF, max. two pages). Please ensure this includes your name, address, email address, phone number (optional), website (optional) and preferred pronouns.
- Completed equalities monitoring form.

Application deadline: 25 March 2024, 9am GMT.Interviews: 8-12 April 2024.*Application notes:

- Please submit your compiled application materials to jobs@dlwp.com.
- If you have any questions, specific access requirements and/or need support making your application please contact joseph.constable@dlwp.com.
- We are committed to working with people that reflect the South East in its broadest form and we are taking action to improve representation from Black, Asian and Global Majority, LGBTQ+ and lower socio-economic communities and those with a disability. We particularly welcome applications from the above under-represented groups.